

REVIEW: Fraix All-Natural Towelettes by Kerri

For a beauty junkie like me, an effective makeup remover is key. Over the years I've come across my fair share of winners, but I'm always on the lookout for the latest and greatest "raccoon-eye-removing" superstar. Recently, I was sent a sample of Fraix All Natural Towelettes. A skin revitalizer and makeup remover rolled into one, Fraix promises these babies will baby your skin like a luxurious lotion and swipe away all traces of makeup. I put them to the test!

Fraix Towelettes are eco-friendly, which I immediately loved. They contain all natural ingredients like essential oils, botanical extracts, Vitamin E and Shea Butter. They're 100% vegan and they come to you in 100% recyclable packaging. Speaking of packaging, each towelette is individually wrapped, preventing your beauty investment from drying out and losing it's magic. It also makes it easy to bring one along when you travel, head to the gym, or need a mid-day refresher!

I reached for one after a long day of work and the scent immediately captivated me: a mix of things like cardamom, grapefruit, and basil. I felt like I was in a spa! The towel is the perfect size: not too big, not too small. Also, it isn't overly saturated with product, so it doesn't leave your face dripping wet. The formula isn't sticky and immediately seemed to calm my red and tired cheeks. Bottom line? It just made my skin feel healthy! As far as removing makeup, I'd say 95% was gone at first swipe. For things like thick liner and  mascara, it took a bit of extra work, but eventually came right off. And because the product is ophthalmologist tested, I knew it was A-OK to work the towel around my eyes. Overall, I give Fraix All-Natural Towelettes an A! They'll definitely be coming home with me this Thanksgiving!

Prices: Box of 7 sachets for $10.00, or two packs of 10 for $18. Available at FraixLux.com and Henri Bendel.
